2004 Shiraz Mourvedre Grenache "The Assemblage"

Colour: Medium red, purple tints;

Aroma: Complex aromas of ripe dark berries, chocolate and white pepper with a little earthy/forestry note in the background and no perceptible oak;

Palate: the rich, elegant flavours of ripe berries & chocolate all melt into one offering up a softness that is associated with these sorts of blends.

Summary: A nice change from the "blood and thunder" of some Aussie Shiraz wines. Woodside Providore's Wild Rabbit Pie would be a brilliant match. Drink over the next 4-5 years.
