

2007 “EASTSIDE” SHIRAZ

Colour: Deep red - almost black.

Aroma: Super ripe blueberry, plum and blackberry Shiraz fruit with some dark chocolate and spicy notes as well. These are all complimented nicely by a swirl of charry French oak somewhere in the mix. Very attractive.

Palate: The palate is soft and powerful with flavours of blueberry, plum and charry oak overlaying a core of dark chocolate running through the mid palate. A little hit of fine, dry tannins on the finish adds length and structure to the plush fruit.

Summary: An excellent example of how good Clare Valley Shiraz can be. No problem in enjoying this wine as a baby, but as usual 4-7 years will see some development in the wine and amply repay those who care enough to stash some away in a cool, dark place.
