

2005 “The Assemblage”

Shiraz Mourvedre Grenache

Colour: Medium / deep red.

Aroma: Ripe blackberries/blueberries, prunes and spicy white pepper notes. Moist earth nuances displayed with a little dark chocolate lurking in the background. The cedary French oak is almost unnoticeable.

Palate: Rich, ripe and plump with a core of blueberry, chocolate and spicy flavours. Soft, ripe tannins and good acid add structure and length to the wine.

Summary: Quite “Rhoney” in style this wine will appeal greatly to lovers of this more subtle, elegant Shiraz based wines. Drink now or next 5-8 years.
